NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S APPLICATION FOR APPROVAL OF AUCTIONEER'S COMPENSATION AND EXPENSES

TO THE DEBTOR, ALL CREDITORS, THE UNITED STATES TRUSTEE, AND OTHER PARTIES-IN-INTEREST:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE, hereby given, that E. Lynn Schoenmann, trustee herein ("Trustee"), hereby applies to the bankruptcy court for an order approving the fees and expenses of Charyn Auctions ("Auctioneer"), the Trustee's auctioneer who conducted the auction of the estate's personal property, consisting of computer equipment, furniture and business supplies, on May 2, 2001. The sale proceeds received at auction totaled $607,180.00.

A portion of the equipment sold at the auction was equipment purportedly leased to the Debtor by Comdisco, Inc. ("Leased Property"). There is a dispute between Comdisco, Inc. ("Comdisco") and the Trustee regarding Comdisco's interest in the Leased Property. The Trustee contends that Comdisco sold the property to the Debtor under a security interest disguised as a lease and that Comdisco's lien is avoidable. In a stipulation between the Trustee and Comdisco ("Stipulation"), filed with the Court on April 30, 2001, Comdisco agreed to allow the Trustee to sell the Leased Property at auction free and clear of any interest Comdisco had in the Leased property. The Stipulation provided that Comdisco's interest in the Leased Property would attach to the net sale proceeds of the Leased Property to the same nature, extent, validity and priority as it held with regard to the Leased Property. Pursuant to the Stipulation, the Trustee will hold the proceeds from the sale of the Leased Property until the Bankruptcy Court issues an order determining the disposition of the proceeds from the sale of the Leased Property.

The Auctioneer agreed to perform the auction services in exchange for payment of a 10% sales commission on the gross sale price, plus expenses not to exceed $10,000.00. Due to a misunderstanding between the Auctioneer and the Trustee, the Auctioneer charged the buyers at the auction a 10% buyer's premium rather than taking 10% of the total auction sale proceeds as its fee, and as a result, there was no deduction from the bid price for the Auctioneer's commission. The total buyer's premium paid to the Auctioneer is 10% of the sale price which is equal to $60,718.00. As a result of the Auctioneer charging a

Re: Letter of Credit Adjunctive to Client Services Agreement

Dear Doug:

Pursuant to our conversation last week, for the appropriate potentially flaky client, you should add the following at the end of Section III.c of your existing Client Services Agreement:

“As a precondition to POS providing any contract employees to Client, Client agrees to provide POS with a standby, irrevocable letter of credit in the amount $ _____ drawn on a bank acceptable to POS with an office (or a corresponding office) in the San Francisco Bay Area. POS may draw upon the letter of credit by providing: (1) An invoice or invoices dated at least seven days prior to the date of draw; and (2) employee time records signed by Client’s designated representative substantiating each invoice. The letter of credit will contain standard commercial terms acceptable to POS.”

Doug, if you have any further questions, please call.

With best wishes,

Re: iSharp, Inc., Debtor, Case No. 01-30341-SFC7

Dear Sir or Madam:

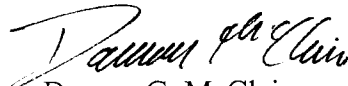

On February 6, 2001, iSharp, Inc. ("iSharp") filed a voluntary petition for relief pursuant to chapter 7 of the United States Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of California, San Francisco Division ("Bankruptcy Court"). Our firm represents E. Lynn Schoenmann, trustee ("Trustee") appointed to oversee the administration of iSharp's chapter 7 bankruptcy case and the liquidation of its assets.

Following a review and analysis of iSharp's financial records by the Trustee's accountants, we have determined that iSharp made transfers to Peopleonsite in the amount of $83,994.90 within the ninety (90) days preceding the filing of its bankruptcy petition. Pursuant to the provisions of Section 547(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, a transfer by a debtor on account of an antecedent debt, such as the aforementioned payments to your firm, made within 90 days prior to the commencement of the bankruptcy case is avoidable and recoverable by the Trustee. Given the information and documents available to the Trustee, the aforementioned transfers received by Peopleonsite are avoidable pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code.

Accordingly, demand is hereby made upon Peopleonsite to pay the Trustee the sum of $83,994.90. This payment should be made by a check payable to "E. Lynn Schoenmann, trustee of the chapter 7 bankruptcy estate of iSharp, Inc." and delivered to the undersigned. In the event that Peopleonsite believes that it may avail itself of any of the statutory defenses enumerated in Section 547 of the Bankruptcy Code, a written and detailed statement of those defenses, accompanied by all supporting documentation, should be forwarded to the undersigned forthwith. Unless the undersigned receives full payment or a satisfactory explanation regarding why all or a portion of the transfers are not recoverable by the Trustee by February 8, 2002, the Trustee will consider further legal action to recover those transfers, including the initiation of an adversary proceeding in the Bankruptcy Court.

Very truly yours,

RE: People OnSite

John:

Some two months ago, I was made aware of funds being held by the U.S. Bankruptcy Court in regards to People OnSite's claim against ISharp. As you may recall, ISharp declared bankruptcy and was unable to pay all invoices due POS. Upon ISharp filing Chapter 7, I submitted a claim to the courts on behalf of POS in an attempt to claim these funds should they become available. A settlement is now available in the amount of $35,000. As a shareholder in POS, you have a right to a portion of these funds.

On behalf of POS, I submitted all the appropriate paperwork to the courts in an attempt to have the funds released to our counsel, Lou Haas, where he would take custody of the funds and distribute them accordingly. However, the courts want to verify that all POS shareholders have been made aware (and approve) of this situation prior to the funds being released.

To that end, it is essential that you contact Ms. Toni Taylor of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court to discuss this matter. Ms. Taylor can be reached via electronic mail at toni\_taylor@canb.uscourts.gov or directly at 415-268-2335 and reference case No. 01-30341

We acknowledge your request for a Tax Clearance Certificate.

A corporation is required to file a return for each year and pay at least the minimum tax until it is dissolved or withdrawn through the Office of the Secretary of State. The dissolution or withdrawal cannot be completed until a Tax Clearance Certificate is issued by this office indicating all taxes have been paid or are otherwise secured.

A minimum tax of $800.00 must be paid for each accounting period even though the corporation is inactive or operated at a loss.

Our records show that this corporation was granted a conditional dissolution by the Office of the Secretary of State effective 07/18/02. Until that date, the corporation remains subject to tax, including the minimum franchise tax provisions of the Bank and Corporation Tax Law.

The individual assumption furnished is not acceptable because it was not signed. The financial statement received was signed. The original signature must be on the completed individual assumption form (page 2 of form 3555).

The corporation must provide an assumer or file a final tax return and request a Tax Clearance Certificate on a taxes paid basis. (Refer to enclosed FTB 1038).
